Join Global Arts Society's African Caribbean Drum and Dance Project for an interactive drum and dance performance on Tuesday, February 24, 2015 at 6 p.m. at the Bay County Public Library. The performance is sure to be fun for all ages!

Dancing and playing music together is a part of community building. The Global Arts Society African Caribbean Drum and Dance Project offers an abundance of opportunities to learn and explore culture through dance and percussion instrumentation. Using a variety of instruments, body-music, choreography, vocals, and group drumming activities, musicians and dancers will build on their natural rhythm sensibilities. Attendees will learn basic rhythm and percussion skills and gain consciousness of African and Caribbean Culture through dance and embodied knowledge.

The program is sponsored by the Northwest Florida Music Teachers Association, and is free and open to the public.

The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City. For more information, please visit www.nwrls.com or call 522-2118.
