FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Author Tim Dorsey Returns to Area Libraries

(PANAMA CITY, FL) – Bestselling author Tim Dorsey will return to three area libraries on October 6. Dorsey is an American novelist, frequently compared to Dave Barry and Carl Hiaasen. Dorsey's books are hilarious crime capers.

All of Dorsey's eighteen novels feature Serge A. Storms as the primary character. Serge has several coexisting mental illnesses that render him obsessive, psychopathic, schizophrenic, and frequently homicidal, but Serge serves as the anti-hero in Dorsey's works due to his strong sense of moral absolutism and justice. Serge is intelligent, and frequently devises wildly inventive ways of condemning villains (or at least those he perceives as such) to death. His co-pilot in his adventures is Coleman, who is the exact opposite of Serge.

In his latest novel, Shark Skin Suite, “the Sunshine State’s favorite psychotic killer and lovable Floridaphile Serge Storms has found a new calling, legal eagle, and he’s going to make a killing as a crusading attorney—and star as a dashing lawyer on the big screen—in this madcap escapade.” [From the publisher]

Dorsey will be at the Panama City Beach Public Library at 12500 Hutchison Boulevard on October 6 at 1 p.m. CT. He will be at the Corinne Costin Gibson Memorial Public Library at 110 Library Drive in Port St. Joe later that day at 5:30 p.m. ET. Then he will be at the Bay County Public Library at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City at 7 p.m. CT. He will have books and other Serge-related items available for purchase.
