FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CityArts Cooperative Exhibit at the Library

(PANAMA CITY, FL) -- CityArts Cooperative will exhibit the work of local artists in an upcoming art show at the Bay County Public Library. The show runs through the month of February and will feature nine talented local artists in a variety of mediums.

Each artist is a director at CityArts Cooperative, and more of their work is on display and available for purchase at the CityArts Gallery. The artists and their mediums are: Bonnie Tate, photography; Christence Taylor, acrylic; Colleen Mayer, ceramics; Diana Pritchard, jewelry; Donna Jangula, paper cutting, graphite; Hannah Spiegleman, acrylic, gouache; Heather Clements, charcoal; Katherine Benford, watercolor; and Olga Guy, Chinese ink.

Regina Burgess, Community Relations and Marketing Coordinator for the Bay County Public Library, said, "I am continually impressed with the tremendously high level of artistic talent in our community. The artists in this show offer a wide variety of mediums, and the art they'll display is evocative yet accessible."

The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City. Please call 522-2100 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information.

CityArts Cooperative and Gallery is located at 318 Luverne Avenue in the heart of Historic Downtown Panama City. It is the largest arts cooperative in Northwest Florida. CityArts' mission is to serve the needs of visual, literary, and performing artists by providing studio space, meeting rooms, classrooms, and a gallery, giving local artists a community within which they can create, teach, and learn.

CityArts believes that providing artists with a relevant system of support and resources enhances their creative output, enabling them to make greater and more meaningful contributions to our communities and society as a whole. CityArts is open Wednesday through Sunday from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.
