FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADAM MILLER CONCERT AT LIBRARY

(PANAMA CITY, FL) -- Adam Miller, a renowned American folksinger, will perform a free concert at the Bay County Public Library on April 5, 2016 at 6 p.m.

One of the premier autoharpists in the world, Adam Miller is also a natural-born storyteller. An accomplished folklorist, historian, musicologist, and song-collector, he has amassed a remarkable repertoire of over 5,000 songs. Miller accompanies his rich, resonant baritone voice with lively finger-picking acoustic guitar and stunningly beautiful autoharp melodies. A masterful entertainer who never fails to get his audience singing along, he has distinguished himself as one of the great interpreters of American folktales and folksongs, and as a performer who appeals to audiences of all ages.

Miller's folksongs and ballads are the songs of America's heritage; a window into the soul of our nation in its youth. "I have always had a great interest in how folksongs travel through history, and how history travels through folksongs," he explains.

This concert is sponsored by the Northwest Florida Music Teachers Association.

The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City. Please call 522-2118 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information on this and other programs.
