FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARTIST CHRISTENCE TAYLOR EXHIBITS AT LIBRARY IN JULY

(PANAMA CITY, FL) – Local artist Christence Taylor will exhibit her work at the Bay County Public Library throughout the month of July.

Christence specializes in acrylic and oil painting as well as wood burning with subject matter generally concentrating on inspiration from coastal themes as well as other objects in nature.

She recreates these simple and organic subjects as a therapeutic and self-meditative process. The herons and magnolias in the upcoming exhibit are centered around crisp white imagery of spring and summer in the South. The pieces are meant to be soothing and organic.

Christence is currently working as a creative director at City Arts Cooperative, which is located at 318 Luverne Avenue in Panama City.

The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 West 11th Street in Panama City. Please call 522-2100 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information.
