FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WINTER PROGRAMMING AT THE PANAMA CITY BEACH PUBLIC LIBRARY

(Panama City Beach, FL) The Panama City Beach Public Library has an exciting line-up of adult programming activities for locals and winter visitors. Scheduled events will take place every Wednesday during January, February, and March from 10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Each month will include a musical performance, book club, bingo, and craft project. The programs are free and open to the public.

The winter programs will kick-off on January 11th at 10:30 a.m. with the Ukulele Orchestra of St. Andrews Concert. Join us for an hour of great music featuring the ukulele and additional instruments. It is recommended to arrive early for a good seat! The Adult Crafting projects allow you to learn a new craft technique and create a DIY craft that you can take home with you. Projects range from clay to jewelry making. Beach Bingo provides an hour of Bingo fun. You may even win a prize! Beach Book Club takes place all year round on the first Wednesday of the month at 10:30 a.m. featuring a select book.
