PELTAPEEPS GAME TOURNAMENT AT THE LIBRARY

(Panama City, Fla.) The Bay County Public Library is excited to host a PeltaPeeps Game Tournament on Monday, December 4th at 3:30 p.m. Ten game stations will be set up, which can fit up to 40 players in total. Program geared for 8 years of age and up to high school teens. The event will be held in the Youth Services Department. Winners get prizes!

PeltaPeeps is a locally designed and handcrafted game by husband and wife team, Thomas Kite and Robin Luft-Kite. The rules will be explained by the game designers before the tournament begins. The pieces are cut from colorful acrylic without a board for an easy set up. The PeltaPeep pieces connect together by interlocking. Players will strategize where to place their piece and how to move or flip their opponent's pieces. It's a point based game that is in constant flux, which relies on problem solving and basic math. Plus, the PeltaPeeps are super cute! The player with the most points is crowned Supreme Peepbah, Royal Peltarc of Peltandia for the round.
