FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CLASSICAL GUITARIST, PETER FLETCHER VISITS THE LIBRARY

(Panama City, Fla.) Classical guitarist, Peter Fletcher, will perform Music of Four Centuries at the Panama City Beach Public Library on Monday, February 12th at 10:30 a.m. Peter offers an audience friendly, solo recital featuring repertoire that spans from the Renaissance Period through the 20th Century. His program features the Prelude from Cello Suite No. 1 and Lute Suite No. 3 by J. S. Bach, Paganini's exciting and ever popular Caprice No. 24, the fiendishly difficult Five Bagatelles by British composer William Walton, and the great Spanish masterwork Cordoba by Isaac Albeniz. Peter Fletcher is a renowned musician and performed a solo recital earlier this year at the prestigious Carnegie Hall in New York City. Program is free to attend. The performance is sponsored by the Panama City Beach Library Foundation.

The Panama City Beach Public Library is located at 12500 Hutchison Boulevard, Panama City Beach, FL 32407. Call 850-233-5055 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information.
