FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CELEBRATE DR. SEUSS'S BIRTHDAY AT THE LIBRARY

(Panama City, Fla.) You could not, would not, want to miss a celebration such as this! You are invited to Dr. Seuss's Birthday Party at the Bay County Public Library on Thursday, March 1st from 2:30 – 4:30 p.m. Dr. Seuss-inspired craft and activity stations will be located throughout the Youth Services Department! All ages are welcome and it is free to attend. The program is sponsored by the Bay County Public Library and the Gulf Coast Woman's Club. The Bay County Public Library is located at 898 W. 11th Street, Panama City, FL 32401. Call 850-522-2118 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information.

But wait, there's also Dr. Seuss Day at the Panama City Beach Public Library on Saturday, March 3rd at 10:00 a.m. Join us as we read stories, make a craft or two, and eat snacks to celebrate Dr. Seuss's Birthday. There will also be a scavenger hunt and a photo booth! The Panama City Beach Public Library is located on 12500 Hutchison Boulevard, Panama City Beach, FL 32407. Call 850-233-5055 or visit www.nwrls.com for more information.

Every year, libraries and schools celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday (March 2nd, 1904) as part of the National Educational Association's Read Across America. Proclamations will be read by Mr. Husfelt and Mr. Brudnicki on February 22 @ 4 pm in the Bay County Public Library Youth Services Department. The public is invited to attend. Pick up a Dr. Seuss book or two and have fun reading!
